Monetary gold bullion cannot go bust. Monetary gold bullion can never be worthless. If something unexpected happens in our lives, monetary gold bullion in small units is the best insurance. Monetary gold bars or coins are the best way of securing value when everything 'goes down the drain.' Monetary gold bullion will never be worthless.

Monetary gold bullion in small units can easily switch into other values, or goods, on a piecemeal basis, which is impossible with large units.

Each minted Boar Head coin comes housed in tamper-evident packaging with a Certificate of Authenticity.

Each coin is serialized on the rear of the sealed display card.
